Filing of the Workers' Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau
For a General Revision of Workers' Compensation Rates
Docket No. R2017-01

Addendum to Decision and Order of March 21, 2018

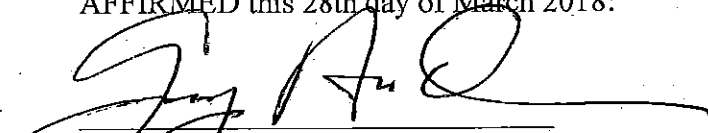

On March 22, Counsel for the WCRIBMA notified the Division of errors in paragraph one, page 3, of the Decision and Order entered in this proceeding on March 21, 2018. In the first sentence, the value of the proposed underwriting profit provision in the 2017 WCRIBMA Filing is erroneously given as +2.00 percent. The correct value is +0.27 percent. In the second sentence of that paragraph, the value of the proposed underwriting profits provision for the F classes is also erroneously given as 2.00 percent. The correct value is +0.27 percent. These technical corrections match the text of the order to the text in the filing and do not affect the terms of the stipulation or the conclusions of the Decision and Order.

ENTERED this 28th day of March 2018.
